IMPERIAL FACTORY TO BE KEPT IN CHARLEROI

Business Men's Association Starts Work to Get Bonus

LEASE EXPIRES SOON

Buildings Rented For Term of Five Years—May be Retained for All Time

Action was taken by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at a meeting held Tuesday night that will insure the continuance in operation here of the Imperial Bottle factory. It was voted to raise a subscription that will be applied as a fund to make up a difference in the rental between the Pittsburgh bank which rents the plant and the company. The lease on the factory that the Imperial company holds would have expired the first of September this year.

A committee was appointed from the association consisting of Charles R. Newcomer, Nathan Greenberg, and J. W. Carroll to secure the necessary subscriptions. This committee will get to work immediately on the project.

By the new arrangement the Imperial Bottle factory will remain here for a certainty just one year. There will be prospects of it being kept here for all time, it is hoped.

Since the factory was located here five years ago it has operated steadily. Scarcely ever has the number of men employed fallen below 200, and more often the number of employees numbered close to 300. The arrangements upon which the plant came was that the payroll was to be not less than $100,000 annually. Not a year has passed but what this amount has been exceeded.

A number of towns have been trying to land the Imperial Bottle factory, it is stated and some of them made good offers. It is understood that had the plant been taken from Charleroi it would have located in a West Virginia town.

GREEKS GRIEVE OVER THE DEATH OF KING GEORGE

The dozen Greeks who live in Charleroi learned with the greatest sorrow this morning of the death of King George of Greece. King George was killed while walking on the streets of Salonika Tuesday afternoon by an assassin. An arrest was made of Aleko Schinas, claimed to be a man of low mental type. King Constantine is the new ruler.

According to Harry Hillas of the Busy Bee restaurant, King George was a most popular king and there will be deep mourning among his subjects who live in America. There will be no memorial arranged for him among the Greeks here for the reason that there are but few living in Charleroi.

To Banquet Local Team

Charleroi High Basketball Coach Arranges Supper as Honorable Affair

As a climax to the Charleroi high school basketball season a supper will be tendered to the team Thursday night by the coach, W. L. Lorimer, at the Waldorf Hotel. Mr. Lorimer is a member of the high school faculty, and voluntarily has given his services to the coaching of the team, to its lasting benefit. He is a former Westminster college basketball player and is a graduate at that place. In addition to the members of the team who will be present, Prof. T. L. Pollock superintendent of schools; S. R. Grim, high school principal and Clyde Haines a member of the high school faculty will be present.

MILKMEN SWEAR TO STATEMENT

Question of Watered Milk Calls Forth Discussion

DEFENSE IS OFFERED

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail: Sir—We, the undersigned who have the past winter sold milk to Floyd Bonnell, desire to make a sworn statement in reply to an article published in the Mail, March 15 in which he says the milk he bought was watered.

In the first place, Mr. Bonnell told the undersigned that he did not know whose milk it was that the inspector secured from him, but it was night's milk. Mr. Bonnell says there are two sides to all questions, and there is to the charge that we watered our milk. In the first place we never watered it, and Mr. Bonnell does not think or ever did think we watered it. As proof of this Mr. Bonnell is still buying our milk. We are sorry Mr. Bonnell got into this trouble, but we disapprove his way of trying to get out. It must have taken a pile of nerve to accuse us of something we were not guilty of. Readers, we are not the guilty parties.

Now we, the undersigned, on oath declare that we never did adulterate, water or place anything in our milk nor allowed anyone else to, and that our milk was delivered to Mr. Bonnell pure.

Mrs. Belle Lutes, Perry Morris, Clyde Spar,

Sworn to and subscribed before me a justice of the peace this 18th day of March, 1913.

N. T. Carson, Justice of the Peace. My commission expires Jan. 1st, 1914

WHOLE FACTORY IS CLOSED BY STRIKE

Belle Vernon Window Glass Plant Forced to Suspend Indefinitely—Blowers and Cappers Go Out First, Others Follow

Today the entire plant of the American Window Glass factory is closed down at Belle Vernon, because of a strike that was started Monday by the blowers and cappers. They went out claiming that their wages had been cut down about 18 months ago through a shortage in demand for glass. They assert they were promised their old wages when the price of glass went up. This they claim has not been done.

The Industrial Workers of the World have been able to secure a footing in Belle Vernon. Wages of all but the blowers and cappers have been advanced 12 1-2 per cent but nevertheless the 400 or 500 men from all departments are out, and assert they are going to stay out, if for no other reason than sympathy. Superintendent T. C. McKinley has been vainly trying to get affairs righted. The advances in wages for the other department it is claimed went into effect after the strike was declared.

A representative of the Industrial Workers of the World was in Belle Vernon Tuesday. It is said an understood effort is being made to have the strike spread to the plant of the American Window Glass plant at Monongahela.

AIDAS GIVE ONE OF BEST RECITALS EVER HEARD HERE

About the best musical event in the history of Charleroi was given Tuesday night at the Methodist Episcopal church by the Aida Quartet of young women, assisted by C. Pol Piancon, a French baritone singer. Music that was real music was played and song by real players and a real singer.

The quartet was composed of Miss Norma Sauter, violinist; Miss Edna White, trumpeter and pianist; Miss Cora Sauter, cellist; and Miss Clara Haven, trumpeter, opening number was the Coronation march of Meyerbees.

Mr. Piancon rendered an aria from Il Barbiere di Siviglia, by Rossini. He has an exquisitely beautiful baritone voice of fine dramatic quality and he was at his best in his interpretation of this aria.

Miss White was the trumpet soloist, playing for her first number, "Fantasia," by Arban. No better trumpet work has ever been heard in Charleroi, that is sure.

The highest credit however undoubtedly goes to Miss Norma Sauter, the violinist. Her rendition of the Gipsy Dance, Nachez, was so excellent that it beggars description. Her bowing was perfect. She is a true artist and her efforts were appreciated, she having to return twice for encores.

A trio arrangement, violin, cello and piano in the beautiful piece, "My Heart at Thy Dear Voice," Saint Saens was most beautiful and required encore selections. The trumpet quartet "Partouille Enfantine," Gilbert, was so good that it demanded encore after encore. When Stephen Foster's melodious "Old Black Joe" was played, with softened tones it "brought down the house."

The second part of the program was really the best. Mr. Piancon sang the Toreador song from Carmen and being gifted with unusual dramatic ability as well as vocal accomplishments, sang it certainly as it ought to be sung. As an encore he gave "Dreams of Long Ago," one of Caruso's songs. Miss Cora Sauter, cellist rendered "The Spider," Dunkler. She played this with the proper spirit and grace and with an accomplished ease that evidenced an artist's hand. The trumpet quartet gain won encores by a popular selection from "The Tales From Hoffman." In two numbers, "Serenade," by Pizette and "Spanish Dance," Moszkowski, the violin cello and piano trio was at its best, but in neither of these did it win the appreciation that a moment later came with the playing of Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana." The final number was a trumpet trio with the piano that rendered the march from Aida, by Verdi.

The members of the Aida quartet are thorough musicians and the music loving public are ready to enthusiastically urge their appearance here again next season.

AGREE AS TO TERMS

Representative of Indianapolis and Phillips Meet

BIG SALARY TO MANAGE

Terms were agreed upon at Pittsburgh Tuesday by a representative of the Indianapolis club in the Federal league and "Bill" Phillips of Charleroi, whereby Phillips will manage the Indianapolis team in the Federal league the coming season. He will get the biggest salary ever paid a minor league manager, $3,000 for the first season.

Manager Phillips started out today on the search for players. Inasmuch as the league is to be an outlaw organization and is backed by plenty of money he will try for only the best players and may succeed in getting some well known men from the larger circuits.

HUNDREDS OF WOMEN HEAR BALLOT DEBATES

Dies At Hospital

Mrs. Catherine Body Succumbs to Few Day's Illness at Local Institution

Mrs. Catherine Body, aged 40 years the wife of Jacob Body, died at the Monessen-Charleroi hospital at about 5:40 o'clock this morning after an illness lasting but a few days. The funeral will be held on Friday at 12 o'clock and the interment will be in the Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Body is survived by her husband and six children: her mother, two brothers and one sister. She lived in Carroll township on the Monongahela road for some years, but during the last 13 years she and her husband have lived in Charleroi.

BERRYMAN OPENING ATTRACTS

Store Never More Beautiful Than It Is Today

MILLINERY ON DISPLAY

Never in the history of J. W. Berryman and Son's department store did it present as beautiful an appearance as it does today, the first day of the annual spring opening there. Every department is a picture of beauty. Greens and palms artistically displayed throughout lend added color to the otherwise handsome surroundings. In the millinery and in the cloak room—for there is where the interest centers are on exhibition all the latest creations. J. D. Berryman the head of the store made recent trips to Cleveland, Ohio and to the eastern fashion centers, where he secured knowledge and bought heavily in preparation for this week's glorious event.

As for styles themselves, they are in many varieties this season. Coats are cut away below the waist. They are draped in unusual places and many have a belted effect about the bottom. All skirts are draped and generally speaking are tighter at the bottom than at any other place except about the waist. Between the knees and the hips they are full. The Turkish war is having an effect on American fashions, as strange as it may seem. The Bulgarian blouse has added to the joys of the well dressed woman. The Bulgarian neat snappy styles are undoubtedly favorites. Bulgarian linings and trimmings; odd colors intermixed also echo the war. Of course there are numerous other dainty fashions. Suffragists and Antis Spend Day at State Capitol

FLOWERS ARE SYMBOLS

Those For Equal Suffrage Wear Yellow and Those Against Red

Harrisburg, March 19—Hundreds of women thronged the senate chamber yesterday afternoon when a public hearing was given by the judiciary general committee on the resolution for an amendment to the constitution to permit women to vote in Pennsylvania. Delegates came in special cars from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and other points and both sides were represented. The suffragists were led by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the woman's suffrage association and the antis by Mrs. A. L. George of Massachusetts, president of the national anti-suffrage association.

The suffragists wore yellow flowers and ribbons and those opposed to the ballot wore red roses and gay red ribbons were festooned about their gowns. They took opposite sides of the senate chamber and quietly hurled deffs across the dividing aisle while the debate was in progress. The advocates of women suffrage were very much in the majority apparently about ten to one.

Call the roll of the "four hundred" in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh or any other large city of Pennsylvania in the senate chamber yesterday afternoon and there would have been many responses. Mrs. Tener, the wife of the president pro-tem of the senate and wives, daughters and sisters of many of the state officials or men in other prominent walks of life were present. Lillian Russell (Mrs. Moore) was there occupying a modest seat in the background, and there were women lawyers and women doctors in numbers.

The indications are that the Rockwell resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution permitting women to vote will promptly be reported out of committee.

There was a disposition on the part of the judiciary committee to hold a meeting and report the measure to the senate today favorably but as Chairman McIlhenny and several of the other members of the committee were absent, action was postponed until 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning.

So much opposition developed toward the Malie ripper bill, which was designed to rip Pittsburgh and Scranton's small council out of office and elect one councilman from each ward, that the author of the bill withdrew it after citizens of the two cities had spent a big bunch of money and much time in journeying to Harrisburg to protest against the measure.

The bill for state wide primaries, by which voters will nominate all state officers as well as local and county candidates finally passed the house, (Continued on fourth page)

One can never tell why this or that piece of jewelry springs into public favor but we are inclined to believe the bracelet has met with universal favor on account of the many exquisite examples to select from and its general appropriateness in offsetting lady's costume. We are rather proud of the line we are showing.

ALMOST.

By the ratification this week of the amendment of the United States constitution to provide for the direct election of United States senators by the people by the legislature of New Jersey, only three more states are required to act to make the amendment operative. Thirty-three states have now approved the amendment and the approval of thirty-six is required to make it a part of the constitution.

It is practically certain that this will be accomplished before the end of the year. The legislatures of six states which have not ratified the amendment are now in session and it is expected that enough of these will act favorably to pass it. These states are Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware, Tennessee and Utah. Already the lower houses of the legislatures of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Rhode Island and Utah have approved the amendment. The senate of Utah voted it down, but some of the members have asked for a reconsideration. As Senator Penrose whose term expires in 1915, is in favor of the amendment, it is expected that the Pennsylvania senate will approve.

This remarkable record has been accomplished within two months and it is confidently expected that the approval of the three remaining states necessary to ratify the amendment will be forthcoming soon.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

The introduction of the Malle bill in the legislature to upset the Pittsburgh and the Scranton city charters and tip their councilmen out of office, is one of the object lessons that emphasizes more than ever why cities and towns should have the privilege of home rule. Under the present provisions of the constitution the legislature imposes the conditions of city government, while the residents of the communities most affected have no voice in their own affairs.

Although the Malle bill was withdrawn after the opposition to it had developed to such an extent that it was apparent it could not pass, yet the mere introduction of it is a menace that threatens every community in the state at each session of the legislature. It caused a lot of trouble and expense in making the people of Pittsburgh and Scranton spend time and money in trying to kill it. This can be repeated indefinitely whenever the legislature is in session. The member from Pike county can make the Pittsburgh citizens spend time and money any time he sees fit, just for the fun of it. No community is safe. Its officials elected by the people can be tipped out of office which may be filled by appointment any time the legislature sees fit.

Home rule has been a slogan for Ireland for many years, but it is needed just as badly in the most of the states of the union.

PIONEER OF TOWN

Miss Zillah Murdock
Dies at Her Home on
McKean Avenue

LIVED HERE 23 YEARS

Miss Zillah Murdock, aged 74 years, for 23 years a resident of Charleroi died at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at her home on McKean avenue from a general breakdown. Funeral services are to be conducted at 1 o'clock this afternoon at the late home by Rev. John R. Burton, pastor of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church. The body will be taken to Carmichaels where further services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and interment will be in the Laurel Point cemetery at that place. Miss Murdock was a sister of the late Assemblyman William Murdock. The surviving brothers and sisters are Ellis Murdock and Miss Anna Murdock of McKean avenue and Mrs. Ellen Gregg of Uniontown. Miss Murdock was the daughter of the late James Murdock of Carmichaels. She came here with her brothers and sisters when the town was in its earliest history.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Those who contemptuously refer to the foreign born workmen as a "Wop," were given a severe rebuke in the criminal court of Allegheny county Monday by Judge J. M. Swearingen, when half a dozen or more of the jurors examined in a murder case expressed a prejudice against foreigners.

"Yes, I have a strong prejudice against foreigners," declared Herbert R. McKendry, a clerk of the Twentieth Ward.

"You mean you wouldn't give them the justice you would give Americans?" Judge Swearingen indignantly asked.

"No I would not."

"And yet you call yourself an American citizen! Do you think you're fit to serve on the jury?" the judge said with decision. "The challenge of the defense is sustained."

Court Crier James A. Steel told the "prejudiced" clerk to go out, but the judge called him back and ordered him discharged from further duty as a juror. The jurist was completely out of patience.

"Well, I haven't got much time for foreigners," Charles Warner, a farmer of Richmond township said when examined.

"What nationality are you?" the judge asked.

"I'm German," Warner said.

"What? A foreigner yourself and you have prejudices against them?"

"Well, I was born in this country."

"I think we're all children of the same God," the judge said and the farmer went out too.

Just as the private soldier went out and fought the battles of his country in 1776, 1812 and 1861 so is the so-called "Wop" out on the firing line of progress, risking his all—his life—daily for home, wife and children, in order that the world may progress, and that ease, refinement and luxury may be attained higher up. It is the "Wop" that I caught in the mine disaster, the cave-in, the hot metal explosion, and the thousand and one mournful events that mark the tragedy of living. In short, "progress is stained with the blood of him."

HELPFUL WAYS OF DOING ODD THINGS

Valuable Laundry Hints.

Never put the things out of hot starch through rubber wringers—it injures the rollers.

A new stiff brush makes the best sprinkler for dampening clothes—better than even a tin salt sprinkler.

Before washing lace curtains tack a strip of muslin along their outer edges and let it remain until they are dry, and you will thus avoid the usual trouble of sagging.

Rubber rollers may be cleaned by rubbing them with a rag dipped in paraffin.

The water in which rice has been boiled may be saved and used to stiffen small articles. This is worth noting by the bachelor girl, who does her own cooking, and also washes her own muslin collars, etc. These muslin collars, she should also remember, must be thoroughly dried before being put away, or they will turn limp again.

To clean paint, provide a plate with scraps of valuable information for use in the kitchen.

been dipped into milk and wrung as dry as possible, or lukewarm water applied with a scrubbing brush will answer equally well with a final polish with a woolen cloth wrung out of skim milk.

To Clean Oil Cloth.

Oil cloth may be cleaned and brightened by washing with clear water in which a little borax has been dissolved; wipe with flannel cloth that has been dipped into milk.

To Freshen Paint.

To clean paint, provide a plate with some best quality of whiting, and have ready some clean water and and piece of flannel, which dip into the water and squeeze nearly dry; then take as much whiting as will adhere to the painted surface, when a little rubbing will instantly remove any dirt or grease. Then wash the part with clean water, rubbing it dry with a chamois.

Free Presents to Mothers From the Druggists Of Charleroi

They Are Giving Away Free to Mothers With Small Children Full Size 25-Cent Packages of the New "External" Vapor Treatment That Relieves Croup in Fifteen Minutes—Colds Overnight

No one knows better than the bronchial troubles, sore throat, difficult breathing, etc., this new treatment will be found unusually effective.

And better still is the fact that this "external" treatment can be used with perfect safety on the smallest child as often and as freely as you wish. Nothing to swallow, nothing injurious, the full ingredients are on every wrapper.

Druggists have long sought for some direct method of reaching cold troubles—for some form of vapor treatment that could be inhaled direct to the lungs and air passages.

In a little North Carolina town a druggist discovered how to combine Thymol, Eucalyptol, Menthol, Camphor, Oil of Pine, etc., in the form of a salve so that when applied to the chest and throat the heat of the body would release these volatile products in the form of vapors.

These vapors are inhaled all night long, at the same time the preparation is absorbed through the skin, taking out the soreness and tightness. The effect for all cold troubles is remarkable no matter whether head colds or deep chest colds. For croup positive relief is assured in fifteen minutes. For all forms of

SOME TEACHERS DISCRIMINATE SAYS LLEWELLYN

That the school teachers of Fayette county fear the school directors and favor their children, was the statement made by County Superintendent C. G. Lewellyn Saturday afternoon in an address to the Fayette County Educational association, which held its first meeting in Uniontown. He declared that many instructors who teach the children of the directors, close their eyes to the fact that the student has not absorbed the subjects presented in that grade, but nevertheless, pass him along to the next grade for fear some petty school director might be offended if his children were kept in the same grade for more than one year.

Don't recommend anyone for promotion into the high school who has not the capacity to absorb the subjects presented there," said Superintendent Lewellyn. "Keep a stiff upper lip, and keep all the students, no matter who they are, in the grades until they have sufficient knowledge of common branches to merit their admittance into high school."

Superintendent Lewellyn, acting as chairman of the meeting, was making his last talk before adjourning the session when he made this statement. He stated that children of school directors had been promoted

SPEERS

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Speers on St. Patrick's day, a daughter.

Born—Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. P. Speers, a daughter.

Dalis, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan who has been very ill for a few days past, is improving slowly.

Misses Marie and Leona Davenport of Pricedale were over Sunday visitors with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davenport.

The protracted meetings at the M. E. church are still progressing. Sunday was a busy day at the church, with Sunday school at 10 o'clock followed by a meeting for the children conducted by the pastor; preaching and altar services at 2:30 for women and girls only, and meeting continuing at 7 o'clock in the evening. Rev. W. H. Shiffner of Dunlevy U. B. church will preach Thursday evening.

The pupils of room No. 1 of the schools here gave their teacher, Miss Bessie Bake a very pleasant surprise party on Saturday afternoon it being her birthday and all report a merry time. Supper was served by Miss Bake's mother and sister.

Harry Gaskill and Miss Thomas of Fayette City were visitors Monday at the former's sister Mrs. Park Jackman.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Corbett spent Sunday with relatives at Duquesne.

News From Up the River

Want Night Service.

The Belle Vernon Civic League has appointed a committee to confer with street car company relative to an all night street car service. This is desired on account of so many Belle Vernon people working on the various night shifts of the Monessen mills.

Stork Beats Out Pale Rider.

During the month of February there were nine births in North Belle Vernon and not one death.

Ladies Visit Monessen.

A number of the members of Belle Vernon Hive No. 165, Ladies of the Macabees, went to Monessen Friday evening after review to attend a social given by Monessen Hive.

Years Don't Count for Age.

Editor L. M. Truxal of the Belle Vernon Enterprise pays this tribute to one of its warmest friends and well-wishers: "Mother Nickel was 79 years old the 8th of this month and The Enterprise feels proud of the fact that she is one of the warmest friends it has. Everybody knows her for she is everybody's friend."

"It isn't the gold you gather, It isn't the fame you've won That makes your life successful— It's the good that you have done."

Business Men to Hold Smoker.

A "smoker" has been arranged for by the Business Men's Association of Fayette City. It will be held in the Citizens Bank Hall on Thursday evening, March 27, and a splendid social occasion is anticipated. Talks by several members of the association and others will be a feature of the evening along with the lunch that is to be served and the smokes that are to be handed out.

Observed St. Patrick's Day.

St. Eusebius church at Fayette City observed St. Patrick's Day with a program beginning Sunday evening with a parade by the A. O. H. and a lecture in the church by the pastor, Rev. P. E. Maher, on "The Last Rose of Summer in Irish History." Exercises were continued Monday afternoon and evening with Ireland in song and story in which some special features were presented.

Empty Barges Scarce.

Owing to the scarcity of coal barges in the fourth pool the mines in that vicinity are not putting out their full capacity of coal. During the winter every available barge was sent south and they have not been returned with any degree of regularity and this curtails the output somewhat at the present time.

Teachers Change Positions.

Miss Lillian Graham, who has been teaching in the public school at Fayette City for the past 14 years, left on Monday to take a position in the Pittsburg schools. Miss Lina Groves formerly the teacher of Grade 7 took her place and Miss Florence Hambrey of Donora has taken Grade 7.

Revivals Well Attended.

The special services at the Fayette City Presbyterian church which began last Sunday evening under the direction of the pastor, Rev. George S. Hackett, assisted by Miss Genevieve Stephens, soloist, and Will A. Cheesman, chorus director and soloist, are being well attended each evening. The meetings will continue during the coming week, services being held each evening including Saturday.

Hotel Being Enlarged.

John Werton has commenced the work of building an extensive addition to Hotel Haley at Roscoe. The bar room will be greatly enlarged and a new kitchen will be added.

Must Patrol Whole Town.

By direction of the Roscoe council the police force of that town, which is composed of one officer, must patrol all of the streets of the borough instead of the main thoroughfare. Citizens put up a kick for a portion of the police protection, hence the action.

Opens New Department Store.

S. Z. Weiner has opened a new department store in California. He occupies a location on Wood street.

Body Shipped Home.

Mrs. E. H. Saxton and Mrs. Hugh Darroch of California have received word from the War Department that the remains of their brother, Captain Patrick McNally who was killed in action in the Philippine islands on January 23, were shipped on February 15, and are expected to arrive some time this month. Captain McNally was killed in an expedition against the Moros on the island of Mindinao.

Brusa's Singing Appreciated.

Louis Brusa of Charleroi, who is singing at the Lyric Theatre at California, is making a great hit with his audiences. A recent selection, "Good By, My Love, Good By," drew for him repeated encores. Mr. Brusa possesses a clear tenor voice of much range and compass, and is a great favorite with California audiences.

This is to prevent customers from handling meat.

WHAT IS DIRT?

How the Question Was Answered by a Professor of Chemistry.

An old college professor used to say to his students: "What is dirt? Don't be afraid of a little dirt, young gentleman. What is dirt? Why, nothing at all offensive when chemically viewed. Rub a little alkali upon that dirty grease spot on your coat, and it undergoes a chemical change and becomes soap. Now rub it with a little water, and it disappears. It is neither grease, soap, water nor dirt."

"That is not a very odorous pile of dirt you observe there. Well, scatter a little gypsum over it, and it is no longer dirty. Everything you call dirt is worthy of your notice as students of chemistry. Analyze it, analyze it! It will all separate into very clear elements."

"Dirt makes corn, corn makes bread and meat, and that makes a very sweet young lady that I saw one of you kissing last night. So, after all, you were kissing dirt, particularly if she whitened her skin with chalk or fuller's earth."

"There is no telling, young gentlemen, what is dirt, though I may say that rubbing such stuff upon the beautiful skin of a young lady is a dirty practice. Nice, pearly face powder is made of bismuth—nothing but dirt."—Exchange.

MIXED WIVES.

The Dilemma That Mr. Church Faced and How He Mastered It.

In the early part of the last century there lived in an old New England town a Mr. Church, who in the course of his early life was bereft of four wives, all of whom were buried in the same lot.

In his old age it became necessary to remove the remains to a new cemetery. This he undertook himself, but in the process the bones became hopelessly mixed.

His "New England conscience" would not allow him under the painful circumstances to use the original head stones, so he procured new ones, one of which bore the following inscription:

"Here lies Hannah Church and probably a portion of Emily."

Another:

"Sacred to the memory of Emily Church, who seems to be mixed with Matilda."

Then followed these lines:

Stranger, pause and drop a tear,
For Emily Church lies buried here.
Mixed in some perplexing manner
With Mary, Matilda and probably Hannah.

A Bit of English Humor.

An English humorist many years ago hit upon a neat way of scoring against certain politicians of the times. A comic journal, not being a newspaper within the meaning of the act, was prohibited from giving news, and so in place of a parliamentary report the humorist in question reported a few "first lines" from speeches by prominent members: "Sir Charles Wetherell said he was not sensible"—"Mr. Hunt was entirely ignorant"—"Lord Ashley said he should take the earliest opportunity of moving"—"Mr. Percival presented a petition praying"—"Colonel Sibthorpe never could understand"—"Lord Lyndhurst said he must entrust of every one to give him credit"—"Sir Edward Sugden was not one of those who thought"—"Mr. Croker said he had the fullest assurance"—

Wonderful Fiddles.

One of the greatest fiddles that ever were known was to be seen at the French court at the time of Charles IX. This was a viol so large that several boys could be placed inside of it. These boys used to sit inside this queer instrument and sing the airs that the man who handled the bow was playing on the viol outside. The effect is said to have been very beautiful, though it would seem as if the presence of the lads in its interior would seriously interfere with the tone of the "great fiddle," as it was called. Many years after another huge instrument of this kind was used at concerts in Boston. It was so large that to play it the fiddler had to stand on a table to use his bow at the proper point on the strings. This instrument was called "the grandfather of fiddles."

Columbia River Thrice Named.
The Columbia river has had three names. It was first called the Oregon. Afterward it was called the St. Rogue, but when it was discovered by Robert Gray in 1792 it was given the name of his vessel, the Columbia, in place of the two floating appellations, Oregon and St. Rogue. According to Whitney, the original name of the river was the Oregon, "big ear" or "one that has big ears," the allusion being to the custom of the Indians who were found in its region of stretching their ears by boring them and crowding them with ornaments.

ions that are extremely chic. Vivid striped materials are popular.

There will be no necessity for a hat pin ordinance this spring. This is simply for the reason that the new style of hats won't need hatpins. They are made to fit tight over the head. One lone aigrette, standing straight up, constitutes the latest in trimming for the latest hats.

In the downstairs department at the Berryman store there is a festive air that is in keeping. Drygoods are displayed with attention to color harmony. It would be impossible to have a much more attractive display than there is there. Laces are shown to fine advantage.

The men's department compels instant attention. The systematic and orderly array of display articles, with attention paid here also to color harmony and lights every visitor. In the men's suit department an advertising lion looking very much alive with nodding head and opened mouth, is one of the first things to be noticed. Like the rest of the store this room shows the result of exceedingly good taste in decoration. The colors for men's clothing of course are not to be compared with those for women's dresses, but all the same this room is a mighty inviting place. The fashions for men this year are about the same as last, generally speaking.

C. C. Suter, manager of the Berryman store, has looked after the decorations of the store. Through his supervision the store has been made pleasant visiting place for today. He was most materially aided by the departmental heads and all the ladies and salesmen.

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN

Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter.

Overworked run down "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Miss Richter's experience. She says: "Last winter I was completely run down and felt fagged out all the time was nervous and had indigestion."

"One of my friends advised me to take Vinol and it has done me great good. The tired, worn-out feeling is all gone and I am strong, vigorous and well. The stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have perfect digestion. I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol." Marie Richter, Detroit, Mich.

Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present strength-creating effects of Vinol. We guarantee Vinol to build you up and make you strong. If it does not we give back your money. Piper Bros., Druggists.

NORTH CHARLEROI

St. Patrick's day is one that will not be forgotten soon by at least 50 men and women of North Charleroi, who assembled unexpectedly on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Foulks on Isabella street. They were not chasing snakes however, but should there have been any they would not have remained long with the unsightly masks that each one wore. After the masks had been removed games and speech-making were the chief amusements until about eleven o'clock. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several friends. The out-of-town guests were Miss Lela Dougherty of Uniontown; Mrs. John A. Hinton and children and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCleary of Montrose.

Miss Grace Phillips is spending the day in Pittsburgh.

IMPERIAL FACTORY TO BE KEPT IN CHARLEROI

Business Men's Association Starts Work to Get Bonus

LEASE EXPIRES SOON

Buildings Rented For Term of Five Years—May be Retained for All Time

Action was taken by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at a meeting held Tuesday night that will insure the continuance in operation here of the Imperial Bottle factory. It was voted to raise a subscription that will be applied as a fund to make up a difference in the rental between the Pittsburgh bank which rents the plant and the company. The lease on the factory that the Imperial company holds would have expired the first of September this year.

A committee was appointed from the association consisting of Charles R. Newcomer, Nathan Greenberg, and J. W. Carroll to secure the necessary subscriptions. This committee will get to work immediately on the project.

By the new arrangement the Imperial Bottle factory will remain here for a certainty just one year. There will be prospects of it being kept here for all time, it is hoped.

Since the factory was located here five years ago it has operated steadily. Scarcely ever has the number of men employed fallen below 200, and more often the number of employees numbered close to 300. The arrangements upon which the plant came was that the payroll was to be not less than $100,000 annually. Not a year has passed but what this amount has been exceeded.

A number of towns have been trying to land the Imperial Bottle factory. It is stated and some of them made good offers. It is understood that had the plant been taken from Charleroi it would have located in a West Virginia town.

GREEKS GRIEVE OVER THE DEATH OF KING GEORGE

The dozen Greeks who live in Charleroi learned with the greatest sorrow this morning of the death of King George of Greece. King George was killed while walking on the streets of Salonika Tuesday afternoon by an assassin. An arrest was made of Aleko Schinas, claimed to be a man of low mental type. King Constantine is the new ruler.

According to Harry Hillas of the Busy Bee restaurant, King George was a most popular king and there will be deep mourning among his subjects who live in America. There will be no memorial arranged for him among the Greeks here for the reason that there are but few living in Charleroi.

He is a former Westminster college basketball player and is a graduate at that place. In addition to the members of the team who will be present, Prof. T. L. Pollock superintendent of schools; S. R. Grim, high school principal and Clyde Haines a number of the high school faculty will be present.

MILKMEN SWEAR TO STATEMENT

Question of Watered Milk Calls Forth Discussion

DEFENSE IS OFFERED

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail: Sir:—We, the undersigned who have the past winter sold milk to Floyd Bonnell, desire to make a sworn statement in reply to an article published in the Mail, March 15 in which he says the milk he bought was watered.

In the first place, Mr. Bonnell told the undersigned that he did not know whose milk it was that the inspector secured from him, but it was night's milk. Mr. Bonnell says there are two sides to all questions, and there is to the charge that we watered our milk. In the first place we never watered it, and Mr. Bonnell does not think or ever did think we watered it. As proof of this Mr. Bonnell is still buying our milk. We are sorry Mr. Bonnell got into this trouble, but we disapprove his way of trying to get out. It must have taken a pile of nerve to accuse us of something we were not guilty of. Readers, we are not the guilty parties.

Now we, the undersigned, on oath declare that we never did adulterate water or place anything in our milk nor allowed anyone else to, and that our milk was delivered to Mr. Bonnell pure.

Mrs. Belle Lutes, Perry Morris, Clyde Spar,

Sworn to and subscribed before me a justice of the peace this 18th day of March, 1913.

N. T. Carson, Justice of the Peace. My commission expires Jan. 1st, 1914

WHOLE FACTORY IS CLOSED BY STRIKE

Belle Vernon Window Glass Plant Forced to Suspend Indefinitely—Blowers and Cappers Go Out First, Others Follow

Today the entire plant of the American Window Glass factory is closed down at Belle Vernon, because of a strike that was started Monday by the blowers and cappers. They went out claiming that their wages had been cut down about 10 months ago through a shortage in demand for glass. They assert they were promised their old wages when the price of glass went up. This they claim has not been done.

The Industrial Workers of the World have been able to secure a footing in Belle Vernon. Wages of all but the blowers and cappers have been advanced 12 1-2 per cent but nevertheless the 400 or 500 men from all departments are out, and assert they are going to stay out, if for no other reason than sympathy. Superintendent T. C. McKinley has been vainly trying to get affairs righted. The advances in wages to the other department it is claimed went into effect after the strike was declared.

A representative of the Industrial Workers of the World was in Belle Vernon Tuesday, it is said and started fires of discontent. Today it is understood an effort is being made to have the strike spread to the plant of the American Window Glass plant at Monongahela.

AIDAS GIVE ONE OF BEST RECITALS EVER HEARD HERE

About the best musical event in the history of Charleroi was given Tuesday night at the Methodist Episcopal church by the Aida Quartet of young women, assisted by C. P. Placon, a French baritone singer. Music that was real music was played and song by real players and a real singer.

The quartet was composed of Miss Norma Sauter, violinist; Miss Edna White, trumpet and pianist; Miss Cora Sauter, cellist; and Miss Clara Haven, trumpet. Opening number was the Coronation march of Meyerbees.

Mr. Placon rendered an aria from Il Barbiere di Siviglia, by Rossini. He has an exquisitely beautiful baritone voice of fine dramatic quality and he was at his best in his interpretation of this aria.

Miss White was the trumpet soloist, playing for her first number: "Fantasia," by Arban. No better trumpet work has ever been heard in Charleroi, that is sure.

The highest credit undoubtedly goes to Miss Norma Sauter, the violinist. Her rendition of the Gipsy Dance, Nachez, was so excellent that it beggars description. Her bowing was perfect. She is a true artist and her efforts were appreciated, she having to return twice for encores.

A trio arrangement, violin, cello and piano in the beautiful piece, "My Heart at Thy Dear Voice," Saint Saens was most beautiful and required encore selections. The trumpet quartet "Partrouille Enfantine," Gilbert, was so good that it demanded encore after encore. When Stephen Foster's melodious "Old Black Joe" was played, with softened tones it "brought down the house."

The second part of the program was really the best. Mr. Placon sang the Toreador song from Carmen and being gifted with unusual dramatic ability as well as vocal accomplishments, sang it certainly as it ought to be sung. As an encore he gave "Dreams of Long Ago," one of Carruso's songs. Miss Cora Sauter, cellist rendered "The Spider," Dunkler. She played this with the proper spirit and grace and with an accomplished ease that evidenced an artist's hand. The trumpet quartet gain won encores by a popular selection from "The Tales From Hoffman." In two numbers, "Serenade," by Pierne and "Spanish Dance," Moszkowski, the violin cello and piano trio was at its best, but in neither of these did it win the appreciation that a moment later came with the playing of Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana." The final number was a trumpet trio with the piano that rendered the march from Aida, by Verdi.

The members of the Aida quartet are thorough musicians and the music loving public are ready to enthusiastically urge their appearance here again next season.

AGREE AS TO TERMS

Representative of Indianapolis and Phillips Meet

BIG SALARY TO MANAGE

Terms were agreed upon at Pittsburgh Tuesday by a representative of the Indianapolis club in the Federal league and "Bill" Phillips of Charleroi, whereby Phillips will manage the Indianapolis team in the Federal league the coming season. He will get the biggest salary ever paid a minor league manager, $3,000 for the first season.

Manager Phillips started out today on the search for players. Inasmuch as the league is to be an outlaw organization and is backed by plenty of money he will try for only the best players and may succeed in getting some well known men from the larger circuits.

Dies At Hospital

Mrs. Catherine Body Succumbs to Few Day's Illness at Local Institution

Mrs. Catherine Body, aged 40 years the wife of Jacob Body, died at the Monessen-Charleroi hospital at about 12 o'clock this morning after an illness lasting but a few days. The funeral will be held on Friday at 12 o'clock and the interment will be in the Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Body is survived by her husband and six children; her mother, two brothers and one sister. She lived in Carroll township on the Monongahela road for some years, but during the last 13 years she and her husband have lived in Charleroi.

BERRYMAN OPENING ATTRACTS

Store Never More Beautiful Than It Is Today

MILLINERY ON DISPLAY

Never in the history of J. W. Berryman and Son's department store did it present as beautiful an appearance as it does today, the first day of the annual spring opening there. Every department is a picture of beauty. Greens and palms artistically displayed throughout lend added color to the otherwise handsome surroundings. In the millinery and in the cloak room—for there is where the interest centers are on exhibition all the latest creations. J. D. Berryman the head of the store made recent trips to Cleveland, Ohio and to the eastern fashion centers, where he secured knowledge and bought heavily in preparation for this week's glorious event.

As for styles themselves, they are in many varieties this season. Coats are cut away below the waist. They are draped in unusual places and many have a belted effect about the bottom. All skirts are draped and generally speaking are tighter at the bottom than at any other place except about the waist. Between the knees and the hips they are full. The Turkish war is having an effect on American fashions, as strange as it may seem. The Bulgarian blouse has added to the joys of the well dressed woman. The Bulgarian neat snappy styles are undoubtedly favorites. Bulgarian linings and trimmings; odd colors intermixed also echo the war. Of course there are numerous other dainty fashions.

Suffragists and Antis Spend Day at State Capitol

FLOWERS ARE SYMBOLS

Those For Equal Suffrage Wear Yellow and Those Against Red

Harrisburg, March 19—Hundreds of women thronged the senate chamber yesterday afternoon when a public hearing was given by the judiciary general committee on the resolution for an amendment to the constitution to permit women to vote in Pennsylvania. Delegates came in special cars from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and other points and both sides were represented. The suffragists were led by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the woman's suffrage association and the antis by Mrs. A. L. George of Massachusetts, president of the national anti-suffrage association.

The suffragists wore yellow flowers and ribbons and those opposed to the ballot were red roses and gay red ribbons were fastened about their waists. They took opposite sides of the senate chamber and quietly hurled debris across the dividing aisle while the debate was in progress. The advocates of women suffrage were very much in the majority apparently about ten to one.

Call the roll of the "four hundred" in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh or any other large city of Pennsylvania in the Senate chamber yesterday afternoon and there would have been many responses. Mrs. Tiner, the wife of the governor, was there seated on the suffragists' side. Mrs. Gerberich the wife of the president pro-tem of the senate and wives, daughters and sisters of many of the state officials or men in other prominent walks of life were present. (Mrs. Moore) was there occupying a modest seat in the background, and there were women lawyers and women doctors in numbers.

The indications are that the Rockwell resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution permitting women to vote will promptly be reported out of committee.

There was a disposition on the part of the judiciary committee to hold a meeting and report the measure to the senate today favorably but as Chairman McIlheny and several of the other members of the committee were absent, action was postponed until 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning.

So much opposition developed toward the Mallie ripper bill, which was designed to rip Pittsburgh and Scranton's small council out of office and elect one councilman from each ward, that the author of the bill withdrew it after citizens of the two cities had spent a big bunch of money and much time in journeying to Harrisburg to protest against the measure.

The bill for state wide primaries, by which voters will nominate all state officers as well as local and county candidates finally passed the house.

ALMOST.

By the ratification this week of the amendment of the United States constitution to provide for the direct election of United States senators by the people by the legislature of New Jersey, only three more states are required to act to make the amendment operative. Thirty-three states have now approved the amendment and the approval of thirty-six is required to make it a part of the constitution.

It is practically certain that this will be accomplished before the end of the year. The legislatures of states which have not ratified the amendment are now in session and it is expected that enough of these will act favorably to pass it. These states are Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware, Tennessee and Utah. Already the lower houses of the legislatures of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Rhode Island and Utah have approved the amendment. The senate of Utah voted it down, but some of the members have asked for a reconsideration. As Senator Penrose whose term expires in 1915, is in favor of the amendment, it is expected that the Pennsylvania senate will approve.

This remarkable record has been accomplished within two months and it is confidently expected that the approval of the three remaining states necessary to ratify the amendment will be forthcoming soon.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

The introduction of the Mallie bill in the legislature to upset the Pittsburgh and the Scranton city charters and rip their councilmen out of office, is one of the object lessons that emphasizes more than ever why cities and towns should have the privilege of home rule. Under the present provisions of the constitution the legislature imposes the conditions of city government, while the residents of the communities most affected have no voice in their own affairs.

Although the Mallie bill was withdrawn after the opposition to it had developed to such an extent that it was apparent it could not pass, yet the mere introduction of it is a menace that threatens every community in the state at each session of the legislature. It caused a lot of trouble and expense in making the people of Pittsburgh and Scranton spend time and money in trying to kill it. This can be repeated indefinitely whenever the legislature is in session. The member from Pike county can make the Pittsburgh citizens spend time and money any time he sees fit, just for the fun of it. No community is safe. Its officials elected by the people can be tipped out of office which may be filled by appointment any time the legislature sees fit.

Home rule has been a slogan for Ireland for many years, but it is needed just as badly in the most of the states of the union.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Fear is expressed in some quarters that the Carnegie endowment will make the Pittsburgh race. That doesn't matter. The real object is to help Andy become a poor man before he dies.

There isn't any official date for the opening of the tennis season. The Ohio Legislator who introduced the bill to prohibit too low decollete dresses, thin stockings and to compel the draping of wax figures certainly must have no idea of real art.

What would the right name of a super-superdreadnaught be? Baseball pitchers are said to be working on a new kind of ball known as the parcel post delivery.

Twenty-nine notices are said to have been sent to the newspapers by the new president Will H. Locke of the Philadelphia Nationals, without his name being mentioned once. He is too modest to make a good baseball president.

Ty Cobb is willing to testify before the vice commission that no player batting .400 in the major league can live on $9,000 a year.

The smartest man in town is the one who can tell all about automobiles without ever owning one.

Operating a motor cycle is easy compared with making a hen care for biddies hatched in an incubator.

PIONEER OF TOWN

Miss Zillah Murdock Dies at Her Home on McKean Avenue

LIVED HERE 23 YEARS

Miss Zillah Murdock, aged 74 years, for 23 years a resident of Charleroi died at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at her home on McKean avenue from a general breakdown. Funeral services are to be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the late home by Rev. John R. Burson, pastor of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church. The body will be taken to Carmichaels where further services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and interment will be in the Laurel Point cemetery at that place. Miss Murdock was a sister of the late Assemblyman William Murdock. The surviving brothers and sisters are Mrs. Murdock and Miss Anna Murdock of McKean avenue and Mrs. Ellen Gregg of Uniontown. Miss Murdock was the daughter of the late James Murdock of Carmichaels. She came here with her brothers and sisters when the town was in its earliest history.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Those who contemptuously refer to the foreign born workmen as a "Wop," were given a severe rebuke in the criminal court of Allegheny county Monday by Judge J. M. Swearingen, when half a dozen or more of the jurors examined in a murder case expressed a prejudice against foreigners.

"Yes, I have a strong prejudice against foreigners," declared Herbert R. McKendry, a clerk of the Twentieth Ward.

"You mean you wouldn't give them the justice you would give Americans?" Judge Swearingen indignantly asked.

"No I would not."

"And yet you call yourself an American citizen! Do you think you're fit to serve on the jury?" the judge said with decision. "The challenge of the defense is sustained."

Court Crier James A. Steel told the "prejudiced" clerk to go out, but the judge called him back and ordered him to discharge him further duty as a juror. The jurist was completely out of patience.

"Well, I haven't got much time for foreigners," Charles Warner, a farmer of Richmond township said when examined.

"What nationality are you?" the judge asked.

"I'm German," Warner said.

"What? A foreigner yourself and you have prejudices against them?"

"Well, I was born in this country."

"I think we're all children of the same God," the judge said and the farmer went out too.

Just as the private soldier went out and fought the battles of his country in 1776, 1812 and 1861 so is the so-called "Wop" out on the firing line of progress, risking his all—his life—daily for home, wife and children, in order that the world may progress, and that ease, refinement and luxury may be attained higher up. It is the "Wop" that is caught in the mine disaster, the cave-in, the hot metal explosion, and the thousand and one mournful events that mark the tragedy of living. In short, "progress is stained with the blood of him."

HELPFUL WAYS OF DOING ODD THINGS

Valuable Laundry Hints.

Never put the things out of hot starch through rubber wringers—it injures the rollers.

A new stiff brush makes the best sprinkler for dampening clothes—better than even a tin salt sprinkler. Before washing lace curtains tack a strip of muslin along their outer edges and let it remain until they are dry, and you will thus avoid the usual trouble of sagging.

Rubber rollers may be cleaned by rubbing them with a rag dipped in paraffin.

The water in which rice has been boiled may be saved and used to stiffen small articles. This is worth noting by the bachelor girl, who does her own cooking, and also washes her own muslin collars, etc. These muslin collars, she should also remember, must be thoroughly dried before being put away, or they will turn limp again.

To clean paint, provide a plate with scraps of valuable information for use in the kitchen. been dipped into milk and wrung as dry as possible, or lukewarm water applied with a scrubbing brush will answer equally well with a final polish with a woolen cloth wrung out of skim milk.

To Clean Oil Cloth.

Oil cloth may be cleaned and brightened by washing with clear water in which a little borax has been dissolved; wipe with flannel cloth that has been dipped into milk and wrung as dry as possible, or lukewarm water applied with a scrubbing brush will answer equally well with a final polish with a woolen cloth wrung out of skim milk.

To Freshen Paint.

To clean paint, provide a plate with some best quality of whiting, and have ready some clean water and piece of flannel, which dip into the water and squeeze nearly dry; then take as much whiting as will adhere to the painted surface, when a little rubbing will instantly remove any dirt or grease. Then wash the part with clean water, rubbing it dry with a chamois.

Free Presents to Mothers From the Druggists Of Charleroi

They Are Giving Away Free to Mothers With Small Children Full Size 25-Cent Packages of the New "External" Vapor Treatment That Relieves Croup in Fifteen Minutes—Colds Overnight.

No one knows better than the bronchial troubles, sore throat, difficult breathing, etc., this new treatment will be found unusually effective. To produce results these remedies must contain some form of narcotic or some one of the coal tar products. These drugs are injurious to the stomach, especially to the delicate stomachs of little children.

Druggists have long sought for some direct method of reaching cold troubles—for some form of vapor treatment that could be inhaled direct to the lungs and air passages. In a little North Carolina town a druggist discovered how to combine Thymol, Eucalyptol, Menthol, Camphor, Oil of Pine, etc., in the form of a salve so that when applied to the chest and throat the heat of the body would release these volatile products in the form of vapors.

These vapors are inhaled all night long, at the same time the preparation is absorbed through the skin, taking out the soreness and tightness. The effect for all cold troubles is remarkable no matter whether head colds or deep chest colds. For croup positive relief is assured in fifteen minutes. For all forms of

Realizing the value of a treatment of this kind, especially to mothers with small children. SOME TEACHERS DISCRIMINATE SAYS LLEWELLYN

That the school teachers of Fayette county fear the school directors and favor their children, was the statement made by County Superintendent C. G. Lewellyn Saturday afternoon in an address to the Fayette County Educational association, which held its first meeting in Uniontown. He declared that many instructors who teach the children of the directors, close their eyes to the fact that the student has not absorbed the subjects presented in that grade, but nevertheless, pass him along to the next grade for fear some petty school director might be offended if his children were kept in the same grade for more than one year.

Don't recommend anyone for promotion into the high school who has not the capacity to absorb the subjects presented there," said Superintendent Lewellyn. "Keep a stiff upper lip, and keep all the students, no matter who they are, in the grades until they have sufficient knowledge of common branches to merit their admittance into high school."

Superintendent Lewellyn, acting as chairman of the meeting, was making his last talk before adjourning the session when he made this statement. He stated that children of school directors had been promoted will give more "real" service and satisfaction than the "ordinary glove" and "cost no more" than the glove represented as "just as good."

"KAYSER'S" Silk Gloves are not the outcome of "claims" or "arguments," but the result of a lifetime of striving for the attainment of an ideal, the achievement of which has not been hampered by restrictions of cost or time.

The guarantee you receive with gloves, sold without the maker's name, rarely ever goes back any further than the clerk who sold the goods.

Every pair of "KAYSER'S" Silk Gloves contains a guarantee ticket—both the glove and the ticket bear the name "KAYSER." Look for it—it is assurance of quality, fit and value and is there for your protection.

Must Erect Barriers.

The Donora American is authoritative for the statement that John Jenkins of Charleroi, an agent of the pure food division of the state department of agriculture, has notified all the meat market men of that town that they must erect barriers around their counters and meat blocks. This is to prevent customers from handling meat.

WHAT IS DIRT?

How the Question Was Answered by a Professor of Chemistry.

An old college professor used to say to his students: "What is dirt? Don't be afraid of a little dirt, young gentlemen. What is dirt? Why, nothing at all offensive when chemically viewed. Rub a little alkali upon that dirty grease spot on your coat, and it undergoes a chemical change and becomes soap. Now rub it with a little water, and it disappears. It is neither grease, soap, water nor dirt.

"That is not a very odorous pile of dirt you observe there. Well, scatter a little gypsum over it, and it is no longer dirty. Everything you call dirt is worthy of your notice as students of chemistry. Analyze it, analyze it! It will all separate into very clear elements.

"Dirt makes corn, corn makes bread and meat, and that makes a very sweet young lady that I saw one of you kissing last night. So, after all, you were kissing dirt, particularly if she whitened her skin with chalk or fuller's earth.

"There is no telling, young gentlemen, what is dirt, though I may say that rubbing such stuff upon the beautiful skin of a young lady is a dirty practice. Nice, pearly face powder is made of bismuth—nothing but dirt."—Exchange.

MIXED WIVES.

The Dilemma That Mr. Church Faced and How He Mastered It.

In the early part of the last century there lived in an old New England town a Mr. Church, who in the course of his early life was bereft of four wives, all of whom were buried in the same lot.

In his old age it became necessary to remove the remains to a new cemetery. This he undertook himself, but in the process the bones became hopelessly mixed.

His "New England conscience" would not allow him under the painful circumstances to use the original head stones, so he procured new ones, one of which bore the following inscription.

"Here lies Hannah Church and probably a portion of Emily."

Another:

"Sacred to the memory of Emily Church, who seems to be mixed with Matilda."

Then followed these lines:

Stranger, pause and drop a tear.
For Emily Church lies buried here.
Mixed in some perplexing manner
With Mary, Matilda and probably Hannah.

—Exchange.

A Bit of English Humor.

An English humorist many years ago hit upon a neat way of scoring against certain politicians of the times. A comic journal, not being a newspaper within the meaning of the act, was prohibited from giving news, and so in place of a parliamentary report the humorist in question reported a few "first lines" from speeches by prominent members: "Sir Charles Wetherell said he was not sensible"—"Mr. Hunt was entirely ignorant"—"Lord Ashley said he should take the earliest opportunity of moving"—"Mr. Percival presented a petition praying"—"Colonel Sibthorpe never could understand"—"Lord Lyndhurst said he must entreat of every one to give him credit"—"Sir Edward Sugden was not one of those who thought"—"Mr. Croker said he had the fullest assurance"—

Wonderful Fiddles.

One of the greatest fiddles that ever were known was to be seen at the French court at the time of Charles IX. This was a viol so large that several boys could be placed inside of it. These boys used to sit inside this queer instrument and sing the airs that the man who handled the bow was playing on the viol outside. The effect is said to have been very beautiful, though it would seem as if the presence of the lads in its interior would seriously interfere with the tone of the "great fiddle," as it was called. Many years after another huge instrument of this kind was used at concerts in Boston. It was so large that to play the fiddler had to stand on a table to use his bow at the proper point on the strings. This instrument was called "the grandfather of fiddles."

Columbia River Thrice Named.

The Columbia river has had three names. It was first called the Oregon. Afterward it was called the St. Roque, but when it was discovered by Robert Gray in 1792 it was given the name of his vessel, the Columbia, in place of the two floating appellations, Oregon and St. Roque. According to Whitney, the original name of the river was the Orejon, "big ear" or "one that has big ears," the allusion being to the custom of the Indians who were found in its region of stretching their ears by boring them and crowding them with ornaments.

Both Hate Him.

"Funny thing," remarked Wilson musingly. "Tom Wilkins and Edith Brown used to be great friends of mine. I introduced them to each other. They got married, and now neither of them will speak to me. Wonder what the reason can be?"

Sometimes They Are.

Little Sister—What are goose eggs to a baseball game? Big Brother—Innings in which no runs are made. Why do you ask? Little Sister—Oh, I thought they were laid by the fowls of the game.—Chicago News.

tions that are extremely chic. Vivid striped materials are popular.

There will be no necessity for a hat pin ordinance this spring. This is simply for the reason that the new style of hats won't need hatpins. They are made to fit tight over the head. One lone aigrette, standing straight up, constitutes the latest in trimming for the latest hats.

In the downstairs department at the Berryman store there is a festive air that is in keeping. Drygoods are displayed with attention to color harmony. It would be impossible to have a much more attractive display than there is there. Laces are shown to fine advantage.

The notion department compels instant attention. The systematic and orderly array of display articles, with attention paid here also to color harmony delights every visitor. In the men's suit department an advertising lion looking very much alive with nodding head and opened mouth, is one of the first things to be noticed. Like the rest of the store this room shows the result of exceedingly good taste in decoration. The colors for men's clothing of course are not to be compared with those for women's dresses, but all the same this room is a mighty inviting place. The fashions for men this year are about the same as last, generally speaking.

C. C. Suter, manager of the Berryman store, has looked after the decorations of the store. Through his supervision the store has been made a pleasant visiting place for today. He was most materially aided by the departmental heads and all the salesladies and salesmen.

"FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN

Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter

Overworked run down "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Miss Richter's experience. She says: "Last winter I was completely run down and felt fagged out all the time was nervous and had indigestion."

"One of my friends advised me to take Vinol and it has done me great good. The tired, worn-out feeling is all gone and I am strong, vigorous and well. The stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have perfect digestion. I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol." Marie Richter, Detroit, Mich.

Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present strength-creating effects of Vinol. The guarantee Vinol will build you up and make you strong. If it does not we give back your money. Piper Bros., Druggists.

NORTH CHARLEROI

St. Patrick's day is one that will not be forgotten soon by at least 50 men and women of North Charleroi, who assembled unexpectedly on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Foulks on Isabella street. They were not chasing snakes however, but should there have been any they would not remained long with the unsightly masks that each one wore. After the masks had been removed games and speech-making were the chief amusements until about eleven o'clock. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several friends. The out-of-town guests were Miss Lena Dougherty of Uniontown; Mrs. John Ashton and children and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCleary of Monaca.

Miss Grace Phillips is spending the day in Pittsburg.

Jesse Bellamy of Danora was the guest of his sister Mrs. George Dennis Sunday.

C. A. Walton of Bucks county is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gaskill and children attended church in Fayette City Sunday.
